

SÖDERTÖRNS HÖGSKOLA | STOCKHOLM

Symposium: 1918, Europe of the Nations

Date: 8th November 2018, 9.00-- 13.00

Venue: Stockholm, Södertörn University, MA 636

Partners: Musée Clemenceau, Paris, Mission Centenaire de la Première Guerre Mondiale, Romanian Cultural Institute, Stockholm

Program:

9.00--9.30: Opening of the event: Gustav Amberg (Vice chancellor, Södertörn University), H.E. Iulian Buga, Ambassador of Romania to the Kingdom of Sweden, Bogdan Popescu (Director, Romanian Cultural Institute, Stockholm), Joakim Ekman (Director Center for Baltic and east European Studies- CBEES, Södertörn University)

9.30--10.00: Jean Noël Jeanneney (Professor emeritus of political science at Paris Institute of Political Studies, ex-President of Radio France, ex-President of National Library of France): “Portrait de Clemenceau : combattant et négociateur”.

10.00—10.30: Ioan Aurel Pop (President of the Romanian Academy, Rector Babeş-Bolyai University, Cluj): “The Making of Romania (1848-1918) and its Place in Europe of the Nations”

10.30—10.50: coffee break

10.50—11.20: Adrian Nastase (President Titulescu Foundation, ex-Minister of External Affairs, ex-Prime Minister of Romania): “Nicolae Titulescu and the organization of the Postwar Europe”.

11.20—11.50: David Gaunt (Professor emeritus, Södertörn University): “The Sykes-Picot agreement and the un/re-making of the Middle East”

11.50--12.20: Anne Hedén (Researcher, Stockholm University, Department of History):
“Sweden, Finland and the Baltic area during the First World War: transnational ties in a changing international context”

12.30: vernissage of the photo exhibition of the Mission Centenaire de la Première Guerre Mondiale, “Clemenceau, wartime leader”, organized in cooperation with the Musée Clemenceau, Paris, at the University Library, Södertörn University.

Organizing committee:

David Gaunt, Professor emeritus, CBEES, Södertörn University

Kimmo Granqvist, Professor, CBEES, Södertörn University

Julieta Rotaru, Research Leader, CBEES, Södertörn University

